

30 Clicks - Sept. 20, 2010
Joan Carey, Reference Librarian

What is NBC Archives on Demand? A treasure trove of video clips from NBC, made available for educators and students.

Where? Library website (www.clark.edu/Library), under Images/Media or Online Resources/Databases.

Register for a password: This will allow you to download videos, save video links, create playlists, make online notes. Off campus, school code= _____. You will only need the school code once. You do NOT need a password to browse and play videos.

Off campus access: Authenticate with your name and ID# (as with any of our databases).

Searching:

- Browse Courses
- Search by keyword or name
- Filter by course (subject), source or media type
- Flip Cue Cards for info and transcripts/printing

Display:

- Thumbnail view
- List view
- Sort ascending/descending dates

Cue Cards:

- Save to Playlists (folders) on the system.
- Save videos to your offline video player (download from NBC archives)
- Copy links to websites (The Blitz in color)
 - <http://higher.ed.nbclearn.com/portal/site/HigherEd/coursenavigator?cuecard=50674>

Help? Email (jcarey@clark.edu); call (x2826 or Ref. Desk x2375)