

E-Books Exercise

- The Gale Virtual Reference Library is a good source of information from books.
 - Off-campus password = your student ID #.
1. At the Cannell Library web page, select Reference Tools, then select Gale Virtual Reference Library.

2. At the Basic Search screen, select Keywords, type your topic. For example:

1960s
1960s and fashion

honey honeybee
honey bee
beekeeping

Ku Klux Klan
Ku Klux Klan and history

Black Madonna
Virgin Mary

civil rights movement
Rosa Parks

3. Look at an article that has relevant information on your topic. Write its citation information.

Author of article: _____

Title of article: _____

Title of book: _____

Editor(s) of book: _____

Place of publication: _____

Publisher: _____

Date published: _____

Page numbers: _____

Name of the database: _____

4. Using the information above, write it in MLA style, as you would for your bibliography (list of works cited):

5. How did you type your search for the article above?

6. To print or email an article to yourself, look for these buttons:  Print Preview  E-mail