

E-Books Exercise

- The Gale Virtual Reference Library is a good source of information from books.
 - Off-campus password = your student ID #.
1. At the Cannell Library web page, select Reference Tools, then select Gale Virtual Reference Library.

Basic Search

Find:

Search for words in: Document title Keyword

2. Select Basic Search, then type your topic. For example:

great depression
great depression and children

racism and great depression racism and African American

trail of tears

Cherokee
Cherokee and language

3. Look at an article that has relevant information on your topic.

Author of article: _____
Title of article: _____
Title of book: _____
Place of publication: _____
Publisher: _____
Date published: _____
Name of the database: _____

4. To print or email an article to yourself, look for these buttons:  Print  E-mail

Forrest Carter Group.

1. At the Cannell Library web page, select Articles & Newspapers, scroll down the page, select Literature Resource Center.
2. Type: carter forrest What did you find?
 - a. How many articles in “Biographies”? _____
 - b. How many articles in “Literature Criticism”? _____
 - c. How many articles in “Reviews & News”? _____
3. Bonus! Try another database:
 - a. Go back to Articles & Newspapers, select ProQuest, search for forrest carter.
 - b. From the list of articles, find “Movie with a Murky Background”
What newspaper is it in? _____
What is the date? _____
 - c. Do you know how to print this article? If not, do so now.