

30 Clicks: Information Tools at Your Fingertips

What is 30 Clicks? Weekly 30 minute sessions, sponsored by the Cannell Library to:

- explore new technologies,
- learn about information tools, and
- network with other interested Clarkers.

Who: Everyone is welcome (Clark faculty, students and staff)

When: Thursdays 1:15-1:45pm (Room open and hosted 1-2pm)

Where: Cannell Library, LIB 103

Chocolate? Of course, we'll have some.

Spring 2010 Schedule:

Date	Presenter	Topic	Description
Week 2: April 15	Zachary Grant	XMind	XMind is a robust mind mapping, brainstorming and collaboration software application useful for both work and class assignments. Excellent for facilitating group projects or just brainstorming. Interested? Check out this XMind workshop. Contact: zgrant@clark.edu or 992-2971.
Week 3: April 22	Roxanne Dimyan	Inspiration	Come learn about Inspiration , a thinking and learning software. Use this visual mapping software to brainstorm ideas, create mind maps, outlines and presentations. Inspiration helps to structure thoughts and visually communicate concepts. Contact: rdimyan@clark.edu or 992-2257.
Week 4: April 29	Jennifer Wheeler	Skype	Skype is a software application that allows users to make FREE voice calls, do Instant Messaging, file transfers, share your PC Desktop and do video-conferencing over the Internet using your computer, webcam and microphone to anywhere in the world with anyone using the FREE Skype service. No TECH SKILLS REQUIRED to setup or activate. Why is this important? You can SKYPE guest speakers to your classrooms, setup up interviews for potential employee candidates and beam them live to your office and or talk to your son living in Japan LIVE and for FREE. Contact: jwheeler@clark.edu or 992-2425.

Week 5: May 6	Gracie White & Scott Black	Malware, Spyware, Adware, Viruses	Malware, Spyware, Adware, Viruses: These are terms we hear every day but do you know what they mean or how to tell if your computer is infected. Every time you connect to the Internet you need to be aware of potential threats to your computer. This informal class will give you the information you need to keep your computer safe from harmful viruses. Contact: gwhite@clark.edu or sblack@clark.edu / 992-2425.
Week 6 May 13	Michelle Bagley & Amanda Brown	Twitter	Why is the world all a flutter about Twitter ? Discover how you can share your interests, chat, and more (in 140 characters or less) Contacts: mbagley@clark.edu /992-2472 or Amanda Brown abrown@clark.edu /992-2504.
Week 7 May 20	Kim Read	APA	Get a better grade on your next paper by citing accurately! At this workshop on APA style , learn how to create a proper References page and how to correctly insert citations into text. If you have a paper or list of sources you're working on, bring it along. Contact: kread@clark.edu .
Week 8 May 27	Lori Wamsley & Elias Gilman	Streaming Videos	Beyond YouTube: Finding Streaming Videos Do you have difficulty finding appropriate streaming videos for your class presentations and projects? Want to jazz up your class lectures with educational videos? Join us for a Thirty Clicks session on where to find streaming videos so that you can use this popular educational tool in your next class! Contacts: lwamsley@clark.edu /992-2558 or egilman@clark.edu /992-2553
Week 9 June 3	Julio Appling	The Incredible Blog	The Incredible Blog One of the earliest social media trends to take hold, blogs leveled the playing field of web publication and are still running strong. Join us for an examination of the ever-evolving blog, and how it continues to be a player on the global media landscape. Contact: jappling@clark.edu /992-2067.
Week 10 June 10	Kim Read	MLA	Get a better grade on your next paper by citing accurately! At this workshop on MLA style , learn how to create a proper Works Cited page and how to correctly insert citations into text. If you have a paper or list of sources you're working on, bring it along. Contact: kread@clark.edu .