

A. Reference Collection Activity:

1. Find the very beginning of the Reference Collection (A). What types of sources are found there?
2. Locate the book, 500 Great Books by Women, (Ref. Z7961 .B35). When you find this book you will be very close to the end of the Reference Collection. What book is shelved before 500 Great Books by Women and what is its library call number?
3. Locate the following book: Ref. HA 202 .A1
List the title below:
4. Use the Library of Congress Classification System Chart posted on the Reference Stacks to find one reference book on each of the following subjects. Write the title and library call number below.

Science

Music

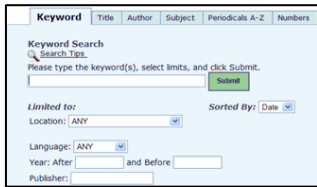

Art

B. Periodicals Area Activity:

Locate the following titles on the shelf:

1. The Journal of Social Issues
What title is shelved before it? (Hint: Look down and to the left) _____
2. Time
What title is shelved before it? _____
3. The Columbian (newspaper)
What title is shelved before it? _____

C. Cannell Library Book Catalog Activity:

1. At the Library web page, select Books (in the left column). At the Library Book Catalogs page, select Cannell Library's Book Catalog.
2. Choose Title and do a search for: Tender is the Night.
3. Click on the title Tender is the Night, by F. Scott Fitzgerald, to see if the book is available and on the shelf.
4. Write the Library call number, location and status for Tender is the Night.

Call number: _____

Location: _____

Status: _____

5. Select Start Over. Use the Subject search to find any books about earthquakes.
[Hint: Type earthquakes]

Write the title, call number and location of one of the books.

Title: _____

Call number: _____

Location: _____

6. Select Start Over. Use the Keyword search to find a book about earthquakes in Washington.
[Hint: Type earthquakes and Washington]

How many titles? _____

7. Select Start Over. Use the Keyword search to find a video about earthquakes. Type: earthquakes. Open the "Material Type" dropdown box and select Videos/DVDs

Write the title, call number and location of one of the videos.

Title: _____

Call number: _____

Location: _____