III. Operations Update

Presented by Vice President of Student Affairs Dr. Michele Cruse, Interim Vice President of Instruction Dr. Jim Wilkins-Luton, Director of AIR Cecelia Martin, and Interim Associate Dean of Enrollment Services Shelley Ostermiller

The team provided a comprehensive enrollment profile for the Fall 2023 term:

- Student Enrollment, including State FTES, BAS, International, and Running Start students.
- Service overviews, including Disability Support Services, Financial Aid, VA Benefits, and Athletics.
- Disaggregated student demographic information.
- Classroom usage, modality, and Faculty overviews.
- Fall-to-Fall student retention.

Board of Trustees Feedback and Discussion

Dr. Edwards shared that nationally, there's between $1,500-2,000 gap between what students get in FA and what they need to meet their financial needs. She provided the college's focus to work to identify the gap for Clark and how we can meet it. Dr. Edwards shared concerns about the smaller number of men, particularly men of color, which is another support/increase opportunity for the College. She also emphasized that over 55% of students indicate they want to earn a degree and transfer. How can we ensure that intention is realized by students? Students completing college-level math and English in their first year is one strategy significant to get the number up. Finally, Dr. Edwards shared that the Full-time vs. Part-time numbers for Clark faculty are impressive.

Trustee Speer shared he's ecstatic to see enrollment numbers going up. He emphasized the value of evaluating the data in comparison to pre-pandemic. He also shared that the population coming back is different and that he anticipates boomerang students are going to return to college. Speer shared that English and math are pre-cursors for success, aligned with Dr. Edwards' feedback. He requested faculty data by demographic in the future as well.

Speer concluded that he signed up for a CCE course this Fall CCE and that seeing the enrollment go up is exciting.

Vice Chair Gideon shared that it would be valuable to review whether there's a difference in completion for online vs. in-person English and math courses. She commented that the data shows several faculty with significant years teaching at Clark and asked if the college has succession planning for faculty. Dr. Wilkins-Luton responded by sharing that the Office of Instruction is currently surveying faculty and recognizing that Tenure faculty have changed, and they want different types of things and have different needs as faculty that Clark is working to support.

Cecelia Martin provided assessment insight that she has developed a systematic process for general education assessment, and English, math, and communication are AIR's top focus for student learning improvement.

Trustee Bennett commented that the Fall program enrollment shows a low BAS degree enrollment percentage and that we have five great Bachelors degrees at Clark. She shared that Clark County has a 32% Bachelors attainment (Multnomah at 47%). Bennett's questions included asking if we have more room to add people in programs and if so, how are we going about getting more students enrolled in those programs? Dr. Wilkins-Luton responded that the college is doing environmental scans in the community to identify the needs, including moving forward with the Bachelors in Computer Science. We are also working on the WSU-V articulation, and if programs aren't offered at Clark, streamlining the transfer process to WSU-V. Bennett also commented on the Running Start numbers, including which feeder schools or districts students are coming from and if the number of AP courses offered at certain schools or districts impacts students coming to Clark for Running Start. Bennett concluded by sharing kudos to all and emphasized how great it is to see positive news of students coming to Clark, the teams getting students into the classroom, and the faculty who are teaching this term.

Trustee Scarbrough shared gratitude for the good information. She particularly appreciated the trend and disaggregation. Scarbrough commented that it would be valuable to see disaggregated Running Start data and faculty and staff demographic trends. Scarbrough concluded with kudos to all and excitement to see Running Start and overall enrollment increase.

Chair Canseco Juarez recognized and shared gratitude for everything everyone is doing for the students. He emphasized the importance of disaggregated demographics of faculty and students, being centered any time we talk about data, and Clark College, staying focused on diversity. Demographic data helps paint that picture and see the trends. Canseco Juarez also shared that CTRAN offers free rides for students and the importance of ensuring students and families know about it and helping them leverage the resources.

IV. Adjournment

Chair Canseco Juarez adjourned the work session at 4:40 pm.

- Tenets referenced, mentioning reducing student access for those that need it most.
- Work Study students working the front door – need more senior classified staff people.

Hicklin closed his report sharing that it is imperative that leadership address these concerns.

CCAHE

Suzanne Southerland, CCAHE, shared the following report:

- The energy on Opening Day was positive and uplifting, filled with Fall quarter excitement. Southerland acknowledged the lack of captions on the videos was unfortunate but shared appreciation for the quickly acknowledged and remedied error.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES REPORT
September 2023

*Presented by:
ASCC President Emma Sturm*

Clark College Students Resources Access

The ASCC Student Government is working to ease students return to campus by providing awareness of college resources such as clubs, programs, workshops, events, leadership opportunities, the DEI office, and the tutoring center. Some ways that ASCC is working on doing this:

- Presented to College 101 classes the second week of the quarter to help inform students about resources available to them. We also let students know about some of APB's and ASCC's upcoming events.
- Hosted the ASCC Social in Hanna Hall Café. The social was a pumpkin painting challenge (best pumpkin wins a $25 gift card to Hanna Hall, voted on by ASCC Student Government). This event helped boost ASCC's presence on campus and had a turnout of over 75 students. Additionally, this event was an experiment to try to host events on campus in high traffic areas versus only having the ASCC events in the Penguin Union Building, which is where almost all the events have occurred in the past.
- Participation in Walktober. ASCC is helping encourage student participation in the Walktober event. Students who enter will be placed into a drawing to win a prize at the end of the month. Walktober is a great opportunity for students to de-stress and increase their wellness.
- Boosted recruitment for Committees by creating flyers/posters to post across campus before fall quarter starts to increase recruitment. Currently we have 25 Committee applications, which is more than we got in all of last year.
- The ASCC Student Government Budget Committee approved two one-time funding requests.
 - The first was for $600 for The Swift literary journal to pay guest writers and editors $200 each (there will be three speakers total) to help teach students about different literary and editing careers and what the relationship is like between a writer and editor.
 - The second was for $1,350 for the annual Clark POWWOW which will take place on November 3rd. At this event students will be able to learn about the meaning behind a traditional POWWOW and the importance of the DreamCatcher Scholarship.

Clark College Campus Climate

ASCC Student Government is working to reengage students on campus. Some of the initiatives ASCC have done to achieve this:

- The Club Coordinator, Alan Dunn, has been working on chartering clubs. Currently, there are 4 chartered clubs and 5 in progress.
- The Student Relations and Promotions Coordinator, Nushi Alam, has reached out to all the clubs and programs to help support them with marketing.
- The Student Life Instagram has gained over 50 followers since the start of the school year, the account started at about 850 followers and now we have over 900 followers.

Clark College State-Wide Initiatives

ASCC Student Government have started to outreach to form different partnerships state-wide. ASCC has been able to accomplish this through:

- The Civics and Sustainability Director, Tammy Pham, has been working with the League of Women Voters to set up an event in November for Election Day to help inform students about current issues and what students can do to resolve them.
- ASCC has been setting up voting booths at events to encourage students to register to vote. Most recently we have had voting booths at the Noche de Familia and the ASCC Pumpkin Competition event.

General Work Updates:

- ASCC is currently working on hiring a Finance Director.
- Working on fine tuning the ideas for a quarterly award event, which will be called the “Waddle Awards.”
- Creating a club competition that will engage students to participate in a challenge to complete their event forms and engage with more students online. The winning clubs will win fundings that will directly go into their club funds.

WPEA Board of Trustees Report

Submitted by Joey Hicklin

October 25, 2023

WPEA will not be giving a constituency report this month. Instead, we will only be submitting the following to be included in public record:

“WPEA has not yet received any communications from the Board or from Clark College in response to the events of the last Board meeting where the VP of HR lied during a public meeting. We reached out after the board meeting last month in hopes that a line of communication could be created, but the College and the Board continues to refuse all communications. WPEA will continue to advocate for its members in all other arenas as we ensure that their rights under the contract are upheld and that the College starts participating in good faith communications and negotiations.”

October 2023

Dear Members of the Clark College Board of Trustees,

We are pleased to provide you with an update on the activities and initiatives undertaken by the Clark College Foundation. Over the past month, we have made significant strides in supporting the mission and goals of Clark College while ensuring the success of our students. The below represents a select few examples. In addition to the below, we will be submitting our monthly financial dashboard next week.

- Scholarship Support for Over 500 Students

One of our proudest accomplishments of late has been the distribution of scholarships to more than 500 students, with a total funding exceeding $1 million. These scholarships have had a profound impact on the lives of our students, providing them with opportunities for educational advancement that might otherwise have been out of reach. We are dedicated to continuing this vital work and expanding our scholarship programs to make higher education more accessible to all.

- Launch of the Clark College Student Success Fund

In the coming days, we are excited to announce the launch of the Clark College Student Success Fund. This initiative aims to further enhance the academic success of our students across the college. Notably, the Taco Bell Foundation has generously contributed a $100,000 matching gift to kickstart this fund. We look forward to growing this fund and supporting a wide range of efforts focused on student success, empowering our students to achieve their academic and career goals. Early in the new calendar year, we will introduce the Clark College Innovation Fund. This fund will support groundbreaking projects and initiatives aimed at enhancing the educational experience and advancing innovation at Clark College. We are enthusiastic about the opportunities this fund will create to foster creativity and innovation within our institution.

- Clark College Conversations Event in November

In partnership with Clark College and Clark College Athletics, we will be hosting the Clark College Conversations Event in early November. This event will bring together athletic supporters, community members, coaches, and students for an evening of celebration and visioning. We will also acknowledge the remarkable achievements of our student-athletes and their dedication to both academics and athletics. Our Conversations series are based on intimate events and experiences for donors and community members alike to best experience and learn more about Clark College and its offerings.

- Communication & Engagement Audit with DHM Research

The Foundation is in the final stages of conducting a comprehensive communication audit in collaboration with DHM Research in Portland. This audit – deeply engaging more than 800 individuals – is designed to gain insights into how the community in Southwest Washington identifies with Clark College Foundation and Clark College. The research will help us build best practices in communication and marketing to meet or exceed community expectations. By optimizing our communication channels and outreach efforts, we aim to maximize the resources and efficiencies that both Clark College and the Foundation can provide to our community and in turn how the community can most efficiently and directly invest in Clark College.

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to the Clark College Board of Trustees, the faculty, staff, donors, and the entire community for your continued support. Together, we are making a meaningful difference in the lives of our students and the broader Southwest Washington community.
