II. Introductions

Professor Mike Godson of the Automotive Department introduced student Zak Thompson, one of the graduates of the first Dick Hannah/Honda cohort. Mr. Thompson is graduating with his ASC Master Certificate and Honda credentials. It has been a pleasure for the faculty to watch the development and growth of the program as well as receive such strong support from the college administration. This program is an example of what can be done when business and education work together. Mr. Thompson spoke about his classmates and the support he received at the dealership. The employees of the dealership helped him learn to be a better technician and set milestones.

Athletic Director Chris Jacob introduced Chloe Lindbo and Kolten Snyder, NWAC Track and Field champions. Ms. Lindbo won the heptathlon and Mr. Snyder won the men's javelin throw. Ms. Lindbo will be continuing in track at Sacramento State. Mr. Snyder is an Army veteran and was a member of the Old Guard at Ft. Myer, VA.

III. Action Items

IV. Audience Statements

There were no statements from the audience this evening.

V. Constituent Reports

A. AHE

Prof. Sullivan did not have anything to report this evening other than that the union expects to wrap up bargaining by Thursday of this week. She and Prof. Mixon had final labor/management meeting today with President Knight and Dr. Cook. She looks forward to seeing the trustees at commencement on Thursday night; although she will not be speaking this year, she will be joining them on stage.

Chair Rupley thanked Prof. Sullivan for keeping the trustees informed this year and attending the boarded meetings.

B. WPEA

There was no report from the WPEA this evening.

C. ASCC

Finance Director Ken Teong reported in Ms. Moe's absence this evening. The ASCC written report stood as submitted.

D. Foundation

Ms. Gibert said it has been a very busy year and the Foundation is preparing for their annual audit. She is pleased to report that 100% of the college and Foundation boards and the Foundation staff have donated this year.

A $10,000 account for student emergency funds will be opened for Student Affairs by a donor provided 100 people from the college make donations.

VI. Reports from Board Members

Chair Rupley thanked Dr. Cook for his years of service to Clark College and taking the lead on guided pathways. President Knight read the Ode to Tim Cook and thanked him for being his right hand on the Executive Cabinet, the college fence mender and conciliator. He wished Dr. and Mrs. Cook the best. He also presented Dr. Cook with a Presidential Coin as he has gone so far above and beyond that he is well deserving of one.

Trustee Strong was very excited and pleased about the Foundation retreat. She learned a great deal about dark fiber and what it means to Clark. The college and Foundation have become true partners and are working so well together. Trustee Strong was the keynote speaker at this year's Student of Color luncheon; she really enjoys connecting with them and hearing their stories.

Trustee Burkman is pleased that there are so many opportunities to hear from students this time of year. He attended the computer expo yesterday and heard about the importance of doing research and design instead of building first. He attended the Boschma Farms open house today and learned about beaver dams and wetlands restoration. He thanked Dr. Cook for his service. Dr. Cook was a professor when Trustee Burkman came on the board and Burkman feels Cook is absolutely ready to be a president.

Trustee Jacobsen said the Foundation retreat was a very special time for the boards to share. She appreciated that it was coordinated by the Foundation instead of an outside event planner. She attended the Community Foundation's annual event that honored the Kirkland's. Trustee Strong was on the video highlights; Clark was also mentioned several times at the event and how strong a presence the college is in the community. It is so exciting for Dr. Cook to be moving to Clackamas Community College; she is very happy for him and Mrs. Cook.

Vice Chair Pollard felt the Foundation retreat was the most refreshing one the Foundation and college have ever had and he enjoyed the great speakers, pertinent information and what is being done for the college and community. He wished Dr. Cook well and will miss him, but knows he will do a great job in Clackamas.

VII. President's Report

President Knight announced that Dr. Sachi Horback will be the new Vice President of Instruction. She will be coming from Pierce College and starts on July 2.

Stefani Coverson will be Vice President of Human Resources and Compliance as of August 16. She is joining Clark from Seattle University. He thanked Trustee Strong for meeting with Ms. Coverson and her family. She will be the fourth new Executive Cabinet member in the past year.

There was a main campus lockdown two weeks ago. A person called the Vancouver PD and said he had shot two police officers and will shoot more. The text announcement that went out at the end of the lockdown said it had been a drill but it was an actual lockdown. The college is performing an analysis of the event and will better communicate with the board and community should there be a future occurrence.

Sen. Lynda Wilson visited the Veterans Resource Center today. She is sponsoring a veterans mental health bill and is seeking Clark's support to move it forward. The bill is specific to higher ed and she is looking to put services on college campuses. She was very impressed with the VRC.

President Knight, Mr. Witte, and Brad Skinner attended a Siemens customer conference in Portland. They later met with Siemens executives to discuss a partnership between the college and the company in the area of advanced manufacturing. Mr. Witte is speaking with colleges back east who have entered into partnerships with Siemens as well.

President Knight met with the CEO of PeaceHealth Southwest WA Medical Center to request assistance in finding nursing instructors. There are not enough tenure track faculty to run the program. Clark would like assistance with funding instructors or having their nurses do some of the instructing. Dr. Walstead will be meeting with their Chief Nursing Officer. Their CEO said they are willing to work with the college.

The governor's office has asked President Knight for names of potential trustees. He has forwarded one name and will talk to the current trustees for more suggestions to submit.

The college is also looking at an apprenticeship program with SEH and will use classes already in place. President Knight met with them yesterday about a possible Fall 2018 start date.

He thanked Trustee Strong for speaking at the Student of Color Luncheon and Ms. Moreno for speaking at the Queer Student Luncheon.

There is a question as to whether the ctcLink software is ADA accessible. PeopleSoft is not ADA compliant but the college is moving forward to comply. Clark's DSS is a leader in the state and the state approached them about a solution. The ADA software will need to be incorporated into ctcLink and there is a question on who will bear the cost of the implementation.

Student Success Story

Mr. Belden and Mr. Maduta introduced Valeria Flores, this evening's student success speaker. She will be this year's student commencement speaker and will be attending WSUV in the fall. Ms. Flores had initially planned to be a nurse but found her calling in speech therapy working with disabled children.

VIII. Faculty Presentation

Dr. Cook introduced Kristin Sherwood and Narek Danielyan who discussed College in the High School and College 101. CIHS allows students to stay in their high school and receive college credit. It is very similar to Running Start but serves students who have barriers to joining Running Start or who are not ready for college. High school teachers are approved by Clark to teach the classes. The program is especially good for rural students who cannot get to Clark each day.

Ms. Sherwood has been managing COLL 101 for the past year and was just appointed as a tenure track professor yesterday after 15 years at Clark.

Clark will be partnering with the Battle Ground Center for Agriculture, Science and Environmental Education and the Mill A school district in Bingen to bring CIHS to them. Clark will also be partnering with Evergreen Public Schools, Henrietta Lacks, and Legacy High School to bring COLL 101 to them. This will give students an opportunity to be introduced to Clark before they register. He recognized the faculty members who were instrumental in creating the partnerships: Bruce Elgort, Bob Hughes, Travis Kibota, Rebecca Marting, Kathleen Petrillo, Kristin Sherwood, Paul Casillas, Joe Cavalli, Steven Clark, Adam Coleman, Jill Darley-Vanis, Elizabeth Donley.

Dr. Cook reported that course mapping for all of the college programs has been completed. Communications & Marketing will be distributing them for public use shortly. Trustee Burkman called this a huge accomplishment and urged the college to celebrate this milestone. Dr. Cook said celebrations will be built into the activities for Opening Day 2018.

Dr. Kibota is leading the updating of the guided pathways timeline which will take place over the course of this summer.

The college's accrediting body will complete a review of the college in October. Ms. Diehl will provide updates to the Board and will have meetings with the Chair and Vice Chair to prepare for the accrediting visit. The accreditors will include the Executive Vice President of the NWCCU and faculty members and administrators from colleges outside of Washington State.

IX. Next Meeting

The next meeting of the Board of Trustees is currently scheduled for Wednesday, August 22, 2018 in the Ellis Dunn Community Room, GHL 213.

X. Executive Session

There was no executive session this evening.

August 2018 Board Report

Academic Excellence: Facilitate student learning by providing the conditions for intellectual growth through scholarship, discovery, application, creativity, and critical thinking.

Objective 1: Implement and institutionalize practices that increase academic performance, retention, and completion.

- As of July 1, Tech Hub was restructured under IT to provide consistent, seamless technology support for students and college employees. (OOI)
- After a year of working with Disability Support Services on recruitment, Tutoring Services hired a tutor to work specifically with hearing-impaired students on writing. (OOI)
- Tutor-led group study sessions are being piloted during summer quarter. Pilot groups include Business Law and Business Math. The goal is to reach more individuals in high-fail rate classes that have limited tutoring resources. (OOI)
- Almost 90% of peer tutors in Tutoring Services have completed training and earned CRLA (College Reading & Learning Association) tutor certification, an internationally accepted standard of skills and training. (OOI)
- Adjustable height tables have been added to the Writing & Language Center, the Transitional Studies Tutoring Center, and the STEM Center to improve equitable access for all students. (OOI)

Objective 2: Create and sustain an inclusive and dynamic curriculum and environment that reflect our diverse college community.

- On June 11, 2018, the Instructional Planning Team (IPT) discussed a proposal to add a Power, Privilege, and Inequity course distribution requirement to the AA-DTA degree. Further consideration of the proposal will occur in the fall 2018 IPT meetings. (OOI)

Objective 4: Create and advance accessible, integrated, and technology-enriched learning environments.

- The education programs at Larch corrections are piloting the use of laptops that will allow students to work on homework and other assignments in the evening and weekends in their living units. The faculty and staff at Larch Corrections Center have been instrumental in getting the laptop pilot off the ground, as well as integrating the use of Canvas and other OERs (Open Educational Resources) into their coursework. These changes will allow the education department to offer hybrid and online classes, which will greatly increase the number of students we serve. (OOI)

Social Equity: Facilitate student learning by providing the conditions that improve educational outcomes and eliminate systemic disparities among all groups.

Objective 7: Create and sustain an accessible and inclusive environment by utilizing principles of universal design and social justice so that all students can achieve equitable outcomes.

- In partnership with Disability Support Services, eLearning funds were allocated to extend the temporary Accessibility Technician position through March 29, 2019. The Accessibility Technician, working within Instructional Design, provides workshops and individualized support for faculty to make course content accessible. The Accessibility Technician has also been tapped to review program information sheets, program maps, and other Guided Pathways documents to ensure they meet accessibility standards. (OOI)

Economic Vitality: Facilitate student learning by providing programs, services, and conditions that improve the economic well-being of the students, college, and community.

Objective 11: Align program offerings with regional workforce needs to include technical and work-readiness skills.

- The Mechatronics Department successfully completed the second year of the NSF RAMP (National Science Foundation Rural Access Mechatronics Program) grant. The RAMP grant has provided funding to develop and deliver the first seven classes of the Mechatronics program in a hybrid modality. Upon completion, students earn a certificate of completion in Mechatronics Fundamentals and can enter the workforce or continue within the Mechatronics program. This is the second year of a three-year grant and was the first year that classes were offered in a hybrid modality. To date, there have been two cohorts of students completing the certificate and local industry has been enthusiastic about the training opportunity for incumbent and entry level employees. (OOI)
- With a grant from the Center of Excellence for Marine, the Welding Department has completed the self-study and all application materials necessary to pursue American Welding Society (AWS) certification. Upon successful completion of the certification process, the Clark College Welding Department will become a certified welding facility, which will allow students to earn industry certifications onsite prior to graduation. In addition, community members and local industry can utilize our facility for certification and re-certification purposes. The next step in the process is a site visit, which will happen in late August or September. (OOI)

Environmental Integrity: Facilitate student learning by providing the conditions that continually improve the college's physical, virtual, and social environment.

Objective 16: Improve the college's physical and virtual environment to maximize access and appropriate use of space and technology.

- More than 50 staff have been involved in Business Process Fit Gap sessions at Clark and SBCTC, Common Process Development Workshops, and Student Information work sessions. These groups have completed homework assignments for the configuration of PeopleSoft for our October 2019 Go Live, along with Change Impact Plans. New people are becoming involved in the project and orientation sessions have been help to help people learn about the work being done on the project. (P&E)
