

Clark College Has Exhibit Of Art Work

Art classes from the Clark junior college are holding an exhibition of their work at the library, which will be there, and open to the public, through Saturday. Included in the exhibition are life drawings and portraits and craft work. Exhibitors are, in the crafts division: Mrs. Nettie Fries, Mrs. Margaret Hidden, Mrs. Hazel Logan, Miss Edyth Williams, and Mrs. Amanda Sorensen.

Showing pictures are Mrs. Florence Burnett, Mrs. Bernice Dick, Miss Joan Hoagland, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. Emma Joyce, Mrs. Nita Kelley, Miss Vivian Kingsley, Miss Lora Leslie, Mrs. Kathleen Riggle, Mrs. Winnie Stanley, Mr. Robert Riecke, and Mr. Charles Sheldon.

Members of the group held a no-host dinner yesterday evening at the New Heathman hotel in Portland, with Mrs. Margaret Page Johnson, acting dean of the college, and Miss Eva Santee, city librarian, as special guests. Afterwards the class met at the Portland Art Museum.
