
Clark College Resumes Work

Classes at Clark junior college met yesterday for the first time since 1943. Classes will follow regular schedule beginning today and throughout the semester which ends May 29, it was stated.

The faculty of the college is headed by Lewis D. Cannell, dean, who is teaching a course in economic geography. Mrs. Margaret Page Johnson is presenting a course in modern literature and one in English composition. Homer P. Foster heads the economics and psychology department while Miss Madaline McDonough is teaching the shorthand classes. Miss Pearl Hall will give art classes in Memorial Hall, R. L. Deaver is to give the engineering drawing course and Miss Elizabeth Conard the mathematics.