

7 GRADUATED BY JUNIOR COLLEGE

Seven graduates of the Clark junior college received diplomas last night in the third annual event of its kind to be staged by the local institution. The rites were held at the Evergreen hotel as the chief feature of a banquet sponsored by the college. Dr. W. S. Middlemass, president of the Vancouver Ministerial association, addressed the graduates in a talk on the problems of social orientation and ways of approaching the problem.

Junior certificates awarded the sophomore graduates were distributed by Lewis D. Cannell, dean of the college. The program also included reading of the class will by Clarence Lund and a piano solo by Miles Mattson. Dancing followed the ceremonies. Members of the graduating class are Elizabeth Gedney, William Moore and Clarence Lund of Vancouver, Dorothy Fay Pearce and Raymond Mattson of Battle Ground, Margaret McCamey of Portland and Lois Payne of Woodland.
