

For

Construction Technology Program

- Understand and apply construction vocabulary.
- Locate, interpret and apply information.
- Perform essential construction operations and functions.
- Know and value professional construction related opportunities.
- Practice and value the importance of professionalism through teamwork, quality of craftsmanship, communication skills, and a positive work ethic.
- Understand, define, practice and value work place safety.