

For

Machining Technology Program

- Interpret blue prints for the manufacturing of a part or parts with 100-percent accuracy in a specified length of time.
- Comply with all safety regulations in the Machining Technology program in accordance with industrial machine shop standards.
- Perform basic mathematical calculation to accurately complete a job.
- Work with a team/group concept to perform multiple tasks in the shop environment.
- Perform entry level skills for manual machining, CNC machining and CAM programming.
- Work in a professional and ethical manner.