DISABILITY SUPPORT SERVICES

Clark College welcomes a diverse student body, and we are committed to promoting access and inclusion for all members of our campus community.

The law states that a disability is a type of physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. Examples of types of disabilities include:

- Attention deficit/hyperactivity
- Autism spectrum
- Developmental
- Health/physical
- Hearing
- Learning
- Mental health/psychological
- Mobility
- Neurological
- Speech/language
- Temporary conditions
- Vision

Some free accommodations we offer include:

- Alternate formats (braille, large print, e-text, audio books)
- Alternate furniture
- Extended testing time
- Interpreters
- Quiet/distraction-reduced testing room
- Note taker or recording of lecture/labs
- Check-in appointments
