2019-2020 AAUW Hudson Bay Branch / Judith Metcalf Grant for Women Returning to School A Fund to Assist Women Exploring Returning to School

This form is available at www.clark.edu/scholarships and may be completed and printed from the web site.

The Hudson's Bay Branch of AAUW has established a scholarship fund to assist women who are returning to school at Clark College. The fund reflects the deep and continued interest in helping women explore their educational options.

- The awards are used to encourage and foster women wishing to return to school after an extended absence from the academic world.
- To be considered for a grant award, a student must be planning to enroll at Clark College; must be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen; and must be female. Qualified applicants include students taking one or more classes at Clark College.
- Applicants may apply directly by completing the information on this page and submitting it to the Financial Aid Office, Gaiser Hall, Clark College.
- Recipients may be required to attend one Hudson Bay Branch AAUW meeting.
- Grants range in size from $250 to $500 and are not renewable.
- Scholarships will be awarded by September for the 2019-2020 school year beginning fall quarter.
