

Clark Orchestra will perform Czech music

Music by composers from the Czech Republic will be performed by the Clark College Orchestra Wed., March 8, 7:30 p.m., at the Vancouver School of Arts and Academics, 3101 Main St., Vancouver.

Guest artist Julius Klein will perform the Clarinet Concerto by Franz Krommer.

Klein is solo clarinetist and executive director of the Slovak State Philharmonic in Kosice, a city in the Czech Republic. He taught clarinet classes at the Kosice Conservatory. He is a member of the Kosice Wind Trio.

Under the direction of music director Donald Appert, the orchestra will also play music by Joseph Suk, along with the famous Symphony No. 7 in D Minor by Anton Dvorak.

Admission is free, with donations invited to the school's music scholarship fund.

Information, 992-2195.

JULIUS KLEIN will perform with Clark College orchestra.