

TUESDAY / 23

Jeffrey Wigand, the former tobacco executive who blew the whistle on the industry's health safety issues, will speak as part of Clark College's Distinguished Lecture Series at 7 p.m. May 23 in Foster Hall, 1800 E. McLoughlin Blvd., Vancouver. Wigand's story later became the basis of the award-winning motion picture, "The Insider." The presentation is free and first-come, first-served. Call 360-992-2219.
