

Ara Serjoie

Ara Serjoie has been appointed Vice President of Development for the Clark College Foundation. Serjoie brings more than 12 years of experience in higher education and nonprofit fundraising to the Foundation's management team. Serjoie previously served in various development functions at the University of Utah, Weber State University, and Utah State University. He most recently served as the Director of Development and Alumni Relations for the Girl Scouts of Utah. During his tenure at Girl Scouts of Utah, Serjoie increased support through annual giving activities by over 400%. Serjoie served as a volunteer during the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City and chronicled his experiences for The Iranian newspaper.