

Clark band, choir to perform

The Clark College choir, directed by Gordon Trousdale, and the school's concert band, under the direction of Charles Ramsey, will perform Fri., June 9, 7:30 p.m., at the Vancouver School of Arts and Academics, 3101 Main St., Vancouver.

The choir will present a program of themes of love and death, including two Elizabethan madrigals, music by Paul McCartney and John Lennon, plus Trousdale's arrangements of Stan Jones' Ghost Riders in the Sky.

Ramsey will lead the concert band in Slavic dances and melodies, plus an arrangement of Gershwin's Porgy and Bess. The band plans a tour to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico in June.

Admission is free, with donations invited to the school's scholarship fund.
