Clark travel studies detailed in program

Europe's World War II battlefields. Vestiges of the Romans and the Ottoman Empire in Turkey. The sights of Chicago and Illinois' land of Lincoln, the sensations of Broadway in New York, the sensibilities of England, from Shakespeare to Austen.

The public is invited to learn more about these trips planned for 2006-07, during Saturday's open house by the Clark College Travel Studies program.

The open house will run 10 a.m. to noon in Penguin Student Lounge, in the Gaiser Hall building, at the north end of the Clark campus at 1800 E. McLoughlin Blvd.

Guests will meet program staff, may sample refreshments and get a 10 percent discount by making a deposit during the event. They are asked to R.S.V.P. to 360-992-2794.
