

JOHN D. WHITE

New member on Clark College board

John D. White, president and founder of The JD White Company, has been appointed to the five-member Clark College board of trustees. He was appointed by Gov. Christine Gregoire. White has served on the board of the Clark College Foundation in the past.