

Clark College art faculty display works

If you go

■ What: Art Faculty Biennial at Clark College. Work by Clark College's art department was featured in many galleries in 2005, but this biennial celebration of such efforts is the first in the gallery's new space. The display of studio work represents the broad range of course study available on campus. Exhibitors include Roger Baker, Lisa Conway, Ray Cooper, Kathrena Halsinger, Beth Heron, Carson Legree, Jenene Nagy, Elsie Petrequin-Noble, Shawn Records, Pat Steeb, Deborah Trousdale, Jack Tannenbaum and Natalie Warrens in works ranging from paintings, photography and graphics to ceramics, metals and computer imagery.

■ When: 1-5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday through Jan. 27.

■ Where: Penguin Student Union Building on Fort Vancouver Way on the campus of Clark College.

■ Cost: Admission is free.

■ Information: Call 360-992-2370 or 360-992-2246.

