

Clark soccer ends No. 4

The Clark College men's soccer team finished its 2006 season ranked fourth in the Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges final poll.

Davor Lukic was named the most valuable player of the NWAACC's South division.

Lukic, Joel Duenas, Cody Samuels, Nic Lundberg (Skyview), Martin Gonzalez and Whitney Parker (Mountain View) were named to the NWAACC men's all-star team.

Lukic and Duenas also scored one goal each in the recent NWAACC all-star game, as Clark coach Ian Lefebvre led the North-South division team to a 4-3 victory over the East-West division team.

Clark finished the year 14-1-1, won the NWAACC's South division, and made it to the quarterfinals of the NWAACC tournament before losing 5-4 to Bellevue on penalty kicks.
