Addison Jacobs has been awarded the Trustees Association of Community and Technical Colleges (TACTC) Award for Leadership for her work as chair of the Clark College Board of Trustees. Jacobs, public affairs director for the Port of Vancouver, joined the board in 2000. Since then, Clark College has become the second largest community/technical college in Washington with new facilities at Columbia Tech Center and Washington State University Vancouver as well as its main campus in Vancouver's Central Park. She'll receive the award during the 2010 TACTC spring conference in Wenatchee on May 20-21.
