

William Belden

■ William Belden is the new vice president of student affairs at Clark College. Prior to joining Clark, Belden last was dean of student services and enrollment management at Green River Community College. At Clark, Belden will lead the teams responsible for registration, enrollment, financial aid, Disability Support services and other services.