Burmak named Clark College trustee

By HOWARD RUCK

Gov. Chris Gregoire on Thursday named former Vancouver city council member Jack Burkman to a five-year term on the Clark College Board of Trustees.

Burkman, 54, replaces longtime board member Kim Peery, a former 17th District state legislator who served two full terms at Clark. Burkman's term will run through September 2013.

The five trustees form the college's governing body.

Burkman currently sits on the YMCA Clark County board, and on the board of the Fort Vancouver Regional Library District.

Before retiring in 2006, he was employed at Hewlett-Packard for 28 years, including time as research and development manager in Vancouver.

More recently, Burkman was Southwest Region planning manager for the Washington Department of Transportation.

Burkman ran for state representative in the 17th District in 2000, but lost to fellow Democrat Pat Campbell in the primary contest.

Book on Clark College's 75th anniversary available

Editor's note: Following the 1935 dedication of the main campus of Clark College, an alumni association was organized to raise funds for a new gymnasium and other needed facilities.

In 1947, when the original gym had been expanded and additional classrooms and offices added, the college's alumni association organized the former class of 1935, the William H. Bennett class, as the William H. Bennett Association.

In the years since, the Bennett Association has raised substantial funds for the college and its scholarships.

The Bennett Association's efforts were in the tradition of the鼠标 account, which established a college fund in 1925 to benefit the students of Clark College.

In 1927, a major fund raising campaign was launched to purchase a university library, which was designed to be built on the main campus.

The Bennett Association's dedication to Clark College's well being has been supported by many alumni and friends of the college.
