Portland Center Stage’s latest production, “The Receptionist,” follows a receptionist who manages to juggle pastries and phone calls while keeping on top of office gossip. But when a coworker is late, her boss is missing and someone arrives from the central office, the receptionist is left to wonder what kind of company she actually works for. “The Receptionist” continues through March 21, with performances at 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays, as well as Feb. 28 and March 14; 2 p.m. Sundays, as well as 2 p.m. March 6 and March 20; and noon Thursdays. There is no 7:30 p.m. show March 13. Shows are at the Ellyn Bye Studio at the Armory’s Gerding Theater, 128 N.W. 11th Ave., Portland. Tickets start at $24; discounts for students and those younger than 30 are available. Call 503-445-3700 or visit http://pcts.org.
