WEDNESDAY / 9

Time is running out to see the latest exhibit at the Clark County Historical Museum. "Commemorating 30 Years: Reflections of Change: Memories of Mount St. Helens" is on display through June 30. The exhibit commemorates the 30th anniversary of the Mount St. Helens eruption with accounts of those who lived, worked and played in the shadow of Mount St. Helens. The museum, 1511 Main St., Vancouver, is open 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays. Admission is $4; $3 for seniors and college students with identification; $2 for children 6-18; and free for children 5 and younger. Anyone who has been laid off due to the recession will receive free admission to the museum through Aug. 28. The free admission is offered in conjunction with the museum's "Putting People to Work" exhibit, which is also on display. Call 360-993-5679 or visit http://chcmuseum.org.

THURSDAY / 10

The Clark College Women's Choral Ensemble and Clark College Chorale will perform in concert. The groups will perform a variety of American songs, including patriotic music and spirituals. The free concert is at 7:30 p.m. June 10 at First United Methodist Church, 401 E. 33rd St., Vancouver. Call 360-992-2662 or visit http://clark.edu.

Portland Center Stage is currently staging "Mike's Incredible Indian Adventure." In the production, Mike agrees to direct an updated version of Neil Simon's "They're Playing Our Song," even though he doesn't like Neil Simon. His mission is to cast the production and take it on a four-city tour across India. He brings along a filmmaker to document the experience, hoping to turn it into a movie. Soon, everything goes wrong. The multimedia performance piece continues through June 13, with performances at 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays; as well as June 6, 7 and 9 p.m. Sundays; as well as June 12; and noon Thursdays. It is being staged in the Ellyn Bye Studio at the Armory's Gerding Theater, 128 N.W. 11th Ave., Portland. Tickets start at $22; discounts for students and those younger than 18 are available. Call 503-445-3700 or visit http://pcs.org.
