best bets

Our picks for the week of June 4-10

FRIDAY / 4

Former Police frontman Sting has teamed up with the Philharmonic Concert Orchestra for a concert tour that will bring him to Portland for a pair of shows. Sting will perform hits such as "Roxanne" and "Every Breath You Take" that have been reinterpreted for the orchestral arrangement. He will headline concerts at 8 p.m. June 4-5 at the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall, 1037 S.W. Broadway, Portland. Tickets $46-$151 through Ticketmaster, 800-745-3000 or http://ticketmaster.com.

SATURDAY / 5

The Stocum House Theatre Company's latest production is "All's Well That Ends Well." The Shakespeare comedy follows Helena, who marries Bertram. The wedding is against Bertram's wishes, and he decides he would rather go off to marry Helana. Performances are at 8 p.m. June 4-5, 11-12, 17-19 and 24-26, as well as 2 p.m. June 6, 13, 20 and 27. All shows are at the Stocum House, 505 Esther St., Vancouver. Tickets $13, and $11 for seniors 60 and older. Call 360-696-2427 or visit http://stocumhouse.com.

SUN

The Clark College Vocal Jazz Ensemble and the Clark College Jazz Ensemble will team up for a spring concert. The ensembles will perform a blend of big band and vocal jazz music; they will collaborate for the concert finale. The concert is at 7:30 p.m. June 4 at Clark College's Gaiser Hall Student Center, 1933 Fort Vancouver Way, Vancouver. Admission is free, but donations to the Clark Music Department will be accepted. Call 360-992-2662 or visit http://clark.edu.

CONCERTS / MUSEUMS / THEATER

The Chelatchie Prairie Railroad will take passengers through a 3,300-foot tunnel and through the forests of North Clark County. The trip includes a brief stop at Big Creek Falls. Trains depart at noon and 2:30 p.m. June 5-6 from Chelatchie Prairie Railroad, 207 S. Railroad Ave., Yacolt. Tickets $15, $14 for seniors 60 and older, $10 for children 5-11; $8 for children 2-4, and free for children 1 and younger. Call 360-686-3559 or visit http://bycx.com.

Vancouver's Historic Uptown Village presents musicians, artists, crafts and food vendors set up on sidewalks along Main Street for its monthly Craft in the Village event. Many merchants will offer sales.

The Hockinson Fun Days community features a variety of family activities. The fun is from 6-9 p.m. June 4 at Hockinson Middle School, 16819 N.E. 159th St., Brush Prairie. Bingo for $1. A pancake breakfast will be 7 a.m. June 5 at Fire District 3, 17718 N.E. 159th St. Tickets $5 per person or $15 per family. A family service for the breakfast is available for High School. The festival's family movie p.m. June 5 at Hockinson High School, 5200 St., Brush Prairie. Additional events are available online. The three-day celebration is June 4-6 throughout Hockinson. Admission. Visit http://hockinsonfundays.com.

The Artist-in-Residence Series at the Ridgefield National Wildlife Refuge will give visitors information about life at the Cathlapotle Prairie. Visitors can learn about the plankhouse way of life, which