Our picks for the week of June 11-17

FRIDAY / 11

The Rose Festival's Waterfront Village hosts a variety of family activities and events. It includes live music, vaudeville acts, children's activities and a carnival. The festival continues daily through June 13 at Tom McCall Waterfront Park, along Naito Parkway, between Southwest Harrison Street and Northwest Glisan Street in Portland. The village opens at 11 a.m. daily. Admission is $5, and free for children 6 and younger. Call 503-227-2681 or visit http://rosegstival.org.

SATURDAY / 12

One of the Portland Rose Festival's marquee events, the Grand Floral Parade, will make its way through downtown Portland on June 12. The parade features 15 floral-covered floats, as well as marching bands, local dignitaries and drill teams. The grand marshal will be former Portland Trail Blazer Brian Grant. Several Clark County high school marching bands will take part in the parade, including bands from Battle Ground, Prairie, Heritage and Columbia River high schools. The parade starts at 10 a.m. June 12 at Memorial Coliseum, 1 Center Court, Portland, and heads into downtown Portland. A detailed map is available online. Reserved seating at Memorial Coliseum is $15-$30. Call the Rose Quarter at 877-989-7673. Viewing along parade route is free. Call 503-227-2681 or visit http://rosegstival.org.

SUNDAY

The Camas Youth Festival offers several activities and information booths for children. The free festival for children 3-16 includes food, entertainment, youth information vendors, a petting zoo, hay rides, carnival games, inflatable games, arts and crafts activities, and an art show. It is from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. June 12 at Crown Park, Northeast Everett Street and 15th Avenue, Camas. Call 360-834-5307 or visit http://www.ci.camas.wa.us/parks.

CONCERTS / THEATERS

Crosby, Stills & Nash will open the season at the Sleep Country Amphitheater near Ridgefield. The singer-songwriter trio has been collaborating since 1969. The band will take the stage at 8 p.m. June 11 at the amphitheater, 17201 N.E. Delfel Road, Ridgefield. Tickets $49-$56 through Ticketmaster, 800-745-3000 or http://ticketmaster.com. A four-pack of lawn tickets is also available for $99. Call 360-816-7000 or visit http://sleepcountryamphitheater.com.

The Clark College Concert Choir and Clark College Concert Band will team up for a concert. The concert choir will sing works by Alexander Gretchaninoff, Ludwig van Beethoven and Randall Thompson, and the concert band will perform work by Robert Jager and Gustav Holst. The free concert is at 7:30 p.m. June 11 at the Vancouver School of Arts and Academics' Royal Duster Theatre, 3101 Main St., Vancouver. Call 360-992-2662 or visit http://clark.edu.

A successful actor becomes romantically entangled with two women in "Present Laughter," the latest production from Magenta Theater. Due to confusion and misinterpreted events, things go downhill quickly. The actor's friends, staff and long-suffering but separated wife try to get his back on track. The production will be staged at 7 p.m. June 11-12, 17-19 and 24-26, as well as 2 p.m. June 19, at Magenta Theater, 606 Main St., Vancouver. Tickets $10-$14 in advance and $11-$15 at the door. Students receive $5 off non-VIP seats for any Thursday performance with identification. Call 360-635-4358 or visit http://magentatheater.com.

The Original Practice Shaw will offer one performance of "About Nothing" in downtown In the production, a pair of lovers plot to confess their love and using the original title is 2 p.m. June 13 at Est Eighth and Columbia streets. There is no admission fee accepted. Visit http/