

Movers and SHAKERS

JEANNE FIRSTENBURG RENEE NUTTER

Clark College Foundation board of directors adds two members

Two Clark County business professionals, Jeanne Firstenburg and Renee Nutter, have been appointed to serve on the board of the Clark College Foundation.

Jeanne Firstenburg was recently appointed to the office of president of First Independent, the region's largest privately-owned, locally-managed bank. Since joining First Independent in 2002, she has directed the rebuilding of the bank's infrastructure and branding. Firstenburg is active in many community organizations and was named a 2009 Woman of Achievement. She began her educational path in a community college setting and advocates the accessibility to higher education provided by community colleges.

Featured | MOVERS

Renee Nutter is a lifetime resident of the Vancouver area. She and her husband, Jerry, president and CEO of Nutter Corp., both attended Clark College. Nutter has served on numerous local committees and boards involving youth, education and activities. In 2007, she became the director of Dozer Days, an annual event that hosts over 20,000 guests and provides the community with family fun while raising money for local children's charities. Since 2008, Nutter has served on the education advisory board of the Washington Policy Center.

