Chamber's 'No Business After Hours' Oktoberfest draws 500 guests

An entourage from Clark College was on hand to greet more than 500 guests at Thursday's "No Business After Hours" party, an Oktoberfest hosted by the Greater Vancouver Chamber of Commerce. The event was held at the vacant downtown Koplan's Home Furnishings store, sponsored by Coldwell Banker Commercial real estate firm, which is marketing the building. Vancouver's Beaches Restaurant and Bar provided the food and downtown furnishings shop, Divine Consign, supplied the interior decor. The event's main focus was "Fun, not pressure to close the deal," said Kim Capeloto, president and CEO of the chamber. The evening included a plug for Clark College programs from Bob Knight, left, college president, mascot Oswald the Penguin, and Kandra Kent, student ambassador.
