

dailyinsider

TUESDAY, JUNE 24, 2008

Raise your hat: ACE to host unique fundraiser June 26

Affordable Community Environments (ACE) a local organization that provides affordable housing and support services for Southwest Washington residents, is hosting an “after-work” party fundraiser Thursday evening.

Titled “Raise Your Hat to Housing,” the benefit will be held at the Red Lion at the Quay from 5-7 p.m.

ACE Executive Director Pam Brokaw said the event features a “high energy election night theme.” Participants will have the opportunity to “vote” for their favorite hat/candidate at $1 per vote. Ballot stuffing is permitted.

The $20 entry fee includes five complimentary votes, refreshments, no host cocktails, priceless fun with emcees Ginger Metcalf and Terry Murphy and Election Night Chair Greg Kimsey.

Go to <http://www.acecommunities.org/> to register online and purchase extra votes.

Brokaw said elaborately decorated hats will be available during both the live and silent auctions.

Call ACE at 360-597-0088 for more information.

Following is a sampling of hats that will be available at the live auction portion of the ACE fundraiser, with additional hats available during the silent auction. From left: Dan Ogden, Hal Dengerink, Mike Gaston and Bob Knight.

