Portland. Tickets $32.50 through Ticketmaster, 350-573-7700 or ticketmaster.com.

Art on the Boulevard’s 15 artists took a look at everyday objects for the gallery’s latest exhibit. Subjects include fruit, vegetables, oil cans and needle and thread. A variety of mediums were used, including oil and acrylic paintings, photography, bronze work and pottery. The exhibit continues through April 25 at 210 W. Evergreen Blvd., Suite 300, Vancouver. The gallery is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays. 360-750-4499 or artontheboulevard.org.

The Bottom Line Duo blends classical and modern music for the latest show in the Camas Performing Arts Series. The concert is at 7 p.m. April 18 at the Garfield Performing Arts Center’s Joyce Garver Theater, 1612 N.E. Garfield St., Camas. Tickets $20; $18 for seniors 60 and older; $10 for children 4-18; and free for children 3 and younger. 360-834-7807 or ecpagas.org.

The Hockinson High School Drama Club follows a young and blossoming super villain in “Dr. Horrible’s Sing-Along Blog — Live!” Dr. Horrible falls in love with Penny and tries to prove that he is a true villain in order to win her heart. But his nemesis, Captain Hammer, also falls in love with Penny. The musical was written by Joss Whedon, creator of “Buffy the Vampire Slayer,” “Dollhouse” and “Firefly.” Performances begin at 7 p.m. April 17-18 at Hockinson High School, 16819 N.E. 155th St., Brush Prairie. Tickets $4 and $3 for students with associated student body cards. 360-448-6450, ext. 5518.

The Mountain Jam Motorcycle Show features a variety of events for motorcycle enthusiasts. It includes the unveiling of a bike that was built as a tribute to prisoners of war and soldiers missing in action, live music, guest speakers, raffles and a fashion show. The show runs 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. April 18 at the Clark County Event Center at the Fairgrounds, 17402 N.E. Delft Road, Ridgefield. Admission is $5, and free for children 12 and younger with two cans of food. A $5 parking fee applies; motorcycles can park free. 360-891-3840 or swvaabike.com.

The Earth Day EcoFair includes local exhibitors, children’s activities, giveaways and a wildlife show. The free event will run 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. April 18 at Salmon Creek Greenway, 1112 N.E. 117th St., Vancouver. As part of the event, a 20-minute bird walk begins at 9:45 a.m. A native plant restoration tour begins at 11:05 a.m. The tour will spotlight the importance of native plants to people and salmon. A wildlife show will take place at 1 p.m. 360-992-6585 or streamteam.net.