VANCOUVER

Paving forces overnight traffic restrictions

Motorists traveling almost every major highway in Clark County can expect overnight delays for asphalt repairs beginning Sunday.

Temporary mobile lane closures and lane shifts will slow traffic for five nights. Workers will begin each night at 9 p.m. and finish by 5 a.m. the following morning.

Restrictions will take effect as follows:
- Sunday: Interstate 5 northbound for 0.6 miles between state Highway 14 and Northeast 134th Street.
- Monday: Interstate 205 southbound at interchange with Northeast 83rd Street, state Highway 500 and Southeast Mill Plain Boulevard.
- Tuesday: Both directions of Interstate 205 at interchange with Highway 14.
- Wednesday: Both directions of I-5 between Highway 14 and 134th Street, and both directions of I-205 for 0.5 miles between 83rd Street and Highway 14.

VANCOUVER

Clark’s weekend degree option explained

Clark College’s new Weekend Degree program will be explained at an information session in downtown Vancouver on Tuesday.

Geared to students with busy weekday schedules, the program blends weekend and online courses to fit personal needs. One option uses one weekend of classes per month.

The information session runs from noon to 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Greater Vancouver Chamber of Commerce office, 1101 Broadway, Suite 100.

Space is limited for the free event. Please visit vancouverusa.com and click on “Events/Registration,” or call 360-694-2588.

For more information on Clark's program, see clark.edu/weekenddegree.

In addition, the Bunnstead murder charge filed in Douglas County, prosecutors in nearby Chelan County charged Bush earlier this summer with second-degree murder in that case is Shawn Forde of Everett.

In Pima County, Ariz., the 34-year-old Bush is one of those with murder in that case.