

2009 Washington Science Olympiad State Tournament Volunteer Form

What is Science Olympiad?

Since 1993, Clark College has hosted either the Southwest Washington Regional Science Olympiad or the State Science Olympiad. This has provided opportunities for middle and high school students to participate in science learning opportunities that are engaging, inquiry-based, hands-on, and team-oriented. The Science Olympiad program has proven to be an effective tool for increasing knowledge and interest in science and science-related careers. We are proud to be the Washington State tournament site for 2009. The competition will take place on the Clark College campus on Saturday, April 18th, 2009.

Why Volunteer?

We have approximately 200 jobs for volunteers that cover fifty events. Our volunteers are key to running a successful competition. The reward for volunteering is the enriching experience of working with bright students involved with science ... as well as receiving a great shirt. Many of our volunteers return year after year to help at the tournament.

How to Volunteer
