

Student Success Workshop

Google Apps & Tools Student Success Workshop

WHEN: October 16th, 1:30 pm - 3:30 pm

WHERE: Library Instruction Lab (LIB 103), Cannell Library

Presenter: Radmila (Radka) Ballada , Technical Services and Systems Librarian, rballada@clark.edu, 360-992-2443

HAVE YOU EVER ...

- misplaced your flash drive and needed to save a draft of your paper?
- tried to collaborate on a group assignment and had no time to meet with your classmates?
- had to create a slide presentation and did not have access to the PowerPoint software?
- wanted to find full-text articles from multiple online journal databases at your library with ONLY ONE SEARCH?

DID YOU KNOW THAT ...

using Google Applications and Google Tools could save your time and help you succeed in your classes?

Come to this workshop and learn how YOU CAN:

- write and store papers in your online Google account
(help for setting up a Google account will be available at this workshop)
- share your Google documents with others and collaborate on assignments with your classmates online
- create slide presentations with Google Apps and seamlessly convert them to PowerPoint
- use "Google Scholar" to locate full-text online articles at your library efficiently
