

Outcomes Assessment: IPT Charge to Full-Time Faculty

The IPT-defined course- and program-level outcomes assessment activities for faculty for 2015-2016 will consist of the following:

- Participate in at least one program-level outcomes assessment project for the year
- Implement at least one action to improve student learning as suggested by assessment project results
- Identify course-level outcomes that align with program-level outcomes, where applicable
- Revise course- and program-level outcomes, as needed, to ensure that all outcomes are current and assessable
- Participate in the development or revision of a comprehensive plan to assess all applicable program-level outcomes
