

Commencement
— JUNE 18, 2026 —

Commencement at Clark College is a very special moment of reflection and inspiration. It is a time to celebrate your hard work, achievements, and promise of the future that lies ahead.

Today marks the culmination of your perseverance, diligence, and sacrifice. We honor you and your well-deserved pride, joy, and your well-earned sense of accomplishment. As you turn the page to the next chapter of your life, we hope that your time at Clark College has not only prepared you with the skills and knowledge to succeed, but ignited a passion for you to make a difference—in your own life, and in the lives of those around you.

Your journey of learning, discovery, and transformation did not happen alone. Walking alongside you were your peers, faculty, families, and friends—inspired by your dedication and determination.

For over 90 years, Clark College has been a place where dreams become realities. Today, you add your story to our proud history. We celebrate you—your achievements, your journey, and the potential that lies ahead in your future.

Know that you will always be a part of Penguin Nation. Clark College will always be a place you can call home. You will always belong—once a Penguin, always a Penguin.

As you move forward, remember that you are part of a community that thrives on connection, compassion, and shared purpose, a community whose mission is to cultivate an inclusive, equitable, and vibrant community that educates, empowers, and elevates individuals to achieve their personal and professional goals. Stay true to our mission and together, we will shape a brighter and stronger future.

On behalf of the entire Clark College community, thank you for making us a part of your educational journey. We are excited to see where your path leads, and we look forward to celebrating your successes in the years to come. We wish you the best.

Warmest congratulations,

CLARK COLLEGE FOUNDATION

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic dress, like judicial dress, probably had its beginnings from an ecclesiastic origin. Over the centuries, British and Commonwealth universities have retained the earlier custom in which holders of doctorate degrees wear scarlet gowns and round bonnets. In the United States, the trend has been to more subdued dress.

Hoods

The academic hood is normally worn by holders of master's and doctorate degrees, but can also be worn by those with a bachelor's degree. The colors seen on that part of the hood which fits around the neck represent the person's major academic discipline. For instance, the School of Education is represented by light blue, Engineering—orange, Arts, Letters, Humanities—white, Music—pink, Physical Education—sage green, Science—golden yellow, and Business—drab. That part of the hood, which hangs across the back and between the shoulders, is lined with the official color or colors of the college conferring the degree. Examples include University of Washington—purple and gold, Washington State University—crimson and grey, University of Oregon—green and gold, and Oregon State University—orange and black.

Gowns

Clark College graduating students wear gowns of light blue (for high school diplomas or equivalents), royal blue (for associate degrees and certificates), or white (for bachelor's degrees). Administrators, faculty and staff who hold an associate, bachelor's or master's degree wear black gowns without trim. Those with a doctorate degree also wear black, but have distinctive velvet facings down the front of the gown and three horizontal velvet bars on each sleeve. The trim is usually black, but can also be worn in the color reflective of the academic discipline.

Caps

The most common cap worn in the United States is the mortar board, named for its flat top. A tassel is fastened at the middle point of the cap, and worn on the right. The tassel is moved from right to left upon the conferring of the degree. Clark College graduating students wear a silver and royal-blue tassel signifying the school colors. Those who are graduating † wear an additional tassel in the corresponding color of their honor status (see "Academic Honors," on page 4). Administrators, faculty and staff generally wear black tassels, with the exception of the gold tassel worn by holders of a doctorate degree.

Clark College has a tradition of decorated caps, celebration leis, stoles, and cords. These items celebrate the achievement of the degree as well as the diverse backgrounds and identities our students hold.

OPTIONAL REGALIA

Stoles

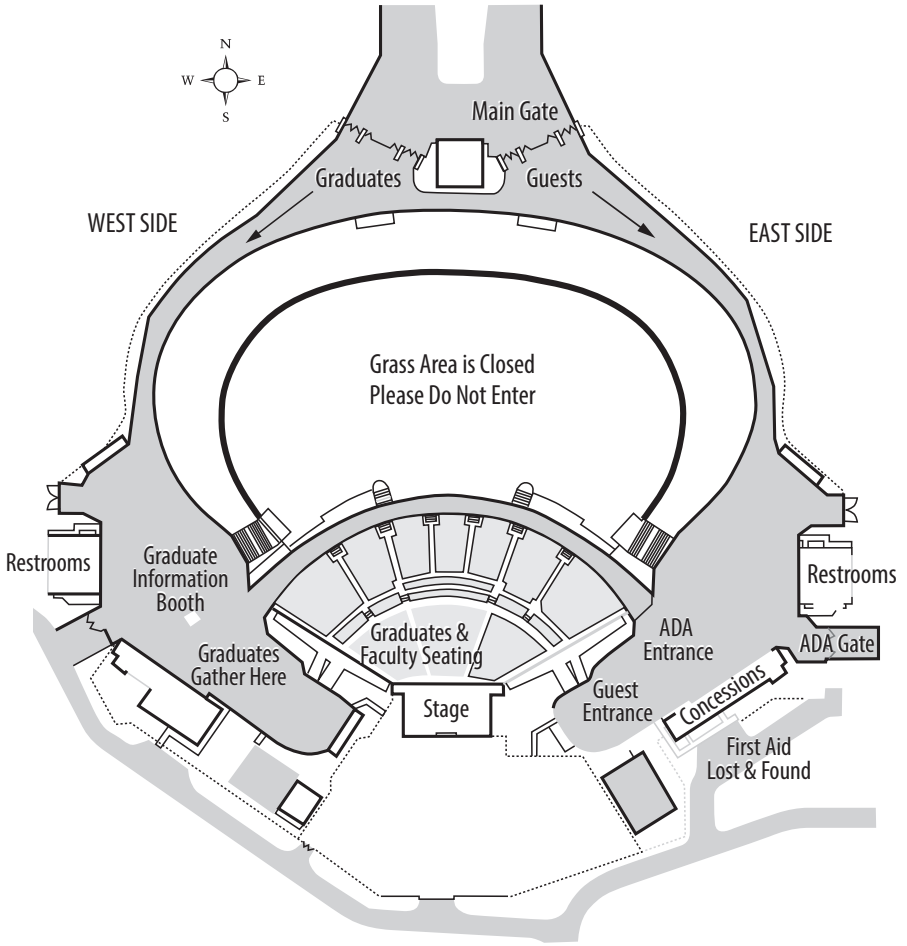

Stoles have become important additions to the commencement tradition and are sometimes handed down to family members to celebrate the multi-generational achievement of educational attainment. Some stoles you will see tonight:

- AANHPI stoles: Black background with turquoise (lotus), pink (cherry blossom), yellow (plumeria), and red (rose) stripes, for Asian American/Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander students.
- ASCC Stoles: White stoles with ASCC embroidery to honor student government leaders.
- Athletics Stoles: Silver stoles with the athletics penguin logo for student-athletes.
- International Stoles: White with a symbol representing the country of origin at the bottom for international students.
- Kente Stoles: Black (union with ancestors/spiritual awareness), gold (status/serenity), green (renewal), with a gold key (success) for students who identify as Black/African American.
- Multicultural Stoles: Black background with red, green, white, yellow stripes and black fringe for students who identify as multicultural or bi/multiracial.
- Native American/Indigenous Stoles: Red background, with navy blue, black, red, and yellow stripes; with bear claw, feather, butterfly, and diamond symbols for Native American students.
