Xander Hawkins presented that the primary concern over the last month has been promoting Student Life positions, specifically ASCC positions for 2022-2023. ASCC attended the Savoring Excellence. They will hold a priorities forum to identify priorities for next year's leader team. They are also surveying students for the preferences, demographics, and student interest in identity-group presence and accommodations on campus. The survey will also assess student interest in the construction of a new performing arts center.

WPEA

Courtney Braddock stated that Jeff Kaliner has joined the Clark College WPEA Leadership team. WPEA leadership team hosted the Spring Quarter Classified Staff Forum with Dr. Edwards and Dr. Cruse. WPEA Higher Ed 2023-2025 contract bargaining season has begun. Child-care availability impacts staff and should be taken into consideration when contemplating on-campus staffing. Staff have not seen guidance from the college outlining procedures the college will implement should positive COVID-19 cases rise, and what the threshold of positive cases is to implement such procedures.

In a moment of deep grieving and distress he recognizes what Clark College (and all colleges) does is address the root causes of violence. What we do is very important mission-centered work for a healthy society and the community we live in.
