Themes of Student Learning
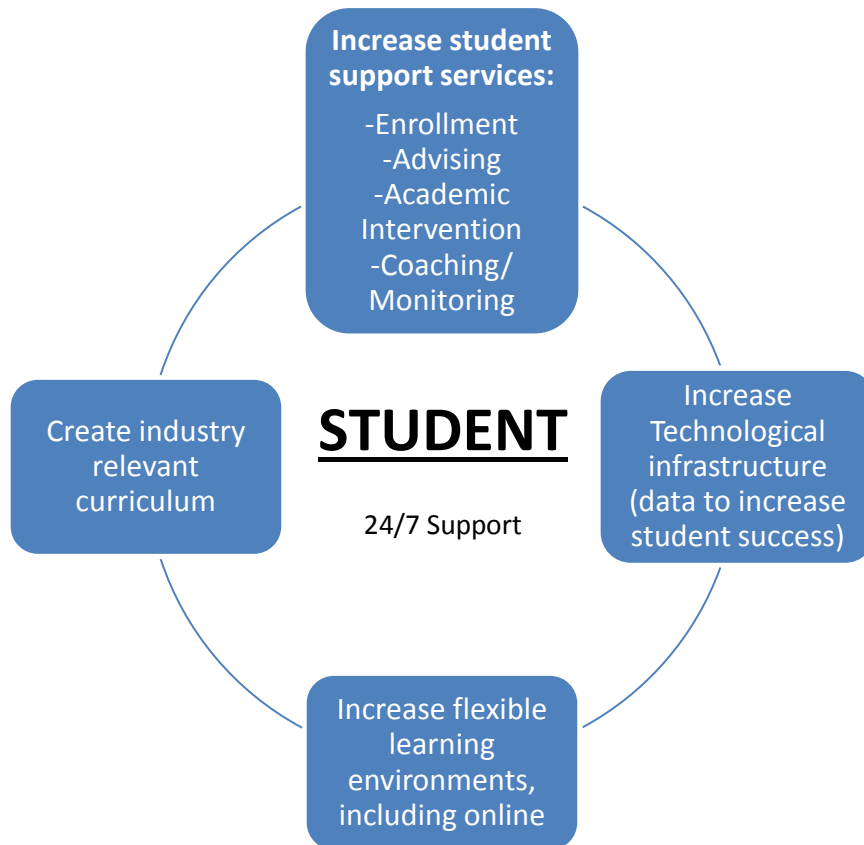

In what ways does your work contribute to Penny's learning?

- Environment
    - Facilities
    - Diversity
    - Student Life (ASCC)
- Instruction
    - Direct
    - AEW
    - Library
- Student Support
    - Orientation
    - Financial aid
    - Tutoring
    - Soft skills
    - Career/Class advising
    - Library
    - Child care
    - Staff Support
    - Technical/Mechanical support
    - Materials

By 2020, how will Clark ensure students are learning: gaining knowledge and skills, and making connections?

How we contribute to Penny's learning:

Learning to learn, resources, relationships, technology, AEW, safe environment, highly qualified instructors; student support

Increase student support services:

-Enrollment
-Advising
-Academic Intervention
-Coaching/ Monitoring

Create industry relevant curriculum

STUDENT

24/7 Support

Increase Technological infrastructure (data to increase student success)

Increase flexible learning environments, including online

Flexible degrees courses, modes; current technology, comprehensive orientation, More full-time faculty; standards for all curriculum, assessment to evaluate student learning; look at 2030; inclusive, safe, learning environment; streamline systems; partnerships; clear educational paths to employment, faculty/staff/leader development

Additional Ideas

How will information be used and communicated? Connection to vision 2020; intentional budgeting, adopt appropriate technology; shared governance; sustainability; credit for prior learning; more accurate assessment tools; faculty/staff/leader development; increase learning communities, assess what students need and want to learn.