Monthly Highlights

- ◊ Advising Services hosted the first, of many, small group advising sessions on October 10 dedicated to help 1st time college students understand the importance of academic planning, identify college resources and help build academic plans for their first year of studies.
- ◊ Students who successfully completed College 101 in their first quarter (Fall 2013 cohort) were statistically significantly more likely to complete a degree or certificate in three years (35%), compared to students who did not enroll in the course (24%). This difference remained statistically significant when isolating to both Running Start (28% vs 19%) and non-Running Start students (46% vs 31%).
