Psychology Emphasis - Associates in Arts Degree

Area of Study: Science, Technology, and Engineering

If you are interested in personality theory, examining human behaviors, and exploring factors that affect individuals and groups of people, then an Associates in Arts degree with a Psychology interest area might be right for you. Students in this program will study how the actions of individuals are influenced by their own thought processes and by people's interactions with others. This degree can lead to jobs in service-oriented careers, or align students planning to transfer for a four-year degree or higher.

> Free Tutoring Services are available to support you throughout your degree completion.

This degree is eligible for the new Auto-Enrollment option

Auto enrollment creates a predictable, reliable schedule so you can balance work and family life while earning your degree or certificate at Clark College.

Program maps are suggested academic plans and should not be used in the place of regular academic advising. Your student entry method, placement, course availability, and program requirements are subject to change and transfer credit(s) may change your map/plan.

Support Services

At Clark College, we know that everyone who walks through our doors is a unique person with diverse, interesting and sometimes challenging circumstances. We are committed to ensuring each and every student can succeed at Clark, and are committed to serving systemically non-dominant communities, including (but not limited to) people of color, those who identify as LGBTQIA2S+ and people with disabilities. We have resource centers, clubs, programs and activities for all students.

Visit our Student Support page for more information.

Funding Options at Clark

There are many resources available to help students cover the costs to attend college—tuition, books, fees, tools, transportation, childcare, etc.—so you can focus on completing your degree or certificate.

Grants Based on need. You do not need to pay back grants.

Scholarships Similar to grants, and there are different criteria; Clark College awards hundreds of thousands of dollars to students each year. We encourage everyone to apply!

Student Employment & Work Study Money you earn through working part-time; this helps to reduce your reliance on loans, and build your skills and resume.

Loans If you do need to borrow additional funds to pay for college-related expenses, you can consider loans. It is money you borrow and will pay back with interest.

Specific Assistance For Veterans, worker retraining, DREAMers, students receiving DSHS benefits, and more.

For more information, visit our paying for college website or visit the Office of Financial Aid in Gaiser Hall room 101.
