

DREAMCATCHER SCHOLARSHIP

IN HONOR OF BECKY ARCHIBALD AND ANNA SCHMASOW

The scholarship is designed to help current and future Clark College students that identify as Native American Indian, Alaska Native, Hawaiian Native, or indigenous to the Americas.

The Dreamcatcher Scholarship will be awarded from the fund in the name of Becky Archibald and Anna Schmasow for their endless commitment to advocating Education for the Seventh Generation.

To be considered for the Dreamcatcher Scholarship, an applicant must be:

- Currently enrolled or will be enrolled at Clark College for at least five credits
- A student of Native American, Indian, Alaska Native, Hawaiian Native, or indigenous background.

APPLY AT THE OFFICE OF DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION
rpitkin@clark.edu
(360) 992-2672