Materials List for Mixed Media: Paper - Morning Class

Acrylic paint in basic colors: Any brand. I like Dick Blick's Blickrylic because it is non-toxic and they are easy to mix your own colors. I suggest using colors that are affordable for you that you feel free to experiment with.

Include: a warm and cool of blues, yellows, reds, black and white.

White gesso

Black gesso

Clear gesso

Gloss Gel Medium - any brand

Variety of acrylic brushes in a variety of sizes

A stiffer brush for applying glue

Stamps and stencils, (we will be making some of our own in class, too)

Sharp scissors

Ruler

Pencil and eraser

Sketchbook

We will use a variety of supports/substrates like Bristol board, canvas, canvas board

Collect magazines to cut up and other interesting papers (ephemera)
