RUNNING START COST BREAKDOWN
2025-2026

Cost	Amount
Student ID Cards	$9.00 Annual ID, valid September 1 through August 31 each year (optional)
Associated Student Fees	$7.25* per credit, per term
Additional Fees (each course may have additional fees)	Estimated $30 - $150* (online fees $5 and $25 per class). In addition, each course may have a class fee, course fee and other fees associated
First Day Digital Access (FDDA online book fees)	Estimated at $20 - $100* per FDDA charge (dependent on course)
Books (sold at bookstore)	Estimated at $75-150* per book (dependent on course).
Transportation	C-Tran Bus Pass: Free with purchase of Student ID card*. Replacement: $48, if lost or stolen* Gas for driving (no parking permits required on campus).

Cost Comparison
Full-time WA Resident Tuition (15 credits)	Running Start Cost (estimated cost to student per term based on 15 units)
$1,680.25* per term (before fees, books or FDDA charges)	$70- $350.00* per term (total each term is dependent on enrolled courses)

* All costs are subject to change without notice.

Fee Waiver: A fee waiver is available for students eligible for free or reduced-price meals, students currently receiving public assistance from a state or federal program, students in Foster Youth, and students receiving Social Security benefits. Students may be considered for the fee waiver by submitting the "Running Start Fee Waiver" form, after being accepted into the Running Start program. The fee waiver is available online at https://www.clark.edu/forms/rs-fee-waiver/.

Running Start procedures are subject to change, please check www.clark.edu/runningstart for the most up-to-date Enrollment Processes.

Revised 1/29/25