Your appeal must include the following:

- › Typed and signed statement explaining:
 - What happened during the term,
 - What has changed in your circumstances, and
 - What is your plan for academic success in the future.
 - › Current Degree Worksheet completed and signed by your program advisor and yourself.
Keep a copy for your records!
 - › Supporting documentation from outside sources such as copies of medical bills, letters from physicians or counselors to verify the information in your statement.
- If you are filing an appeal due to exceeding the maximum credit limit, supporting documentation is not required.

Please see the back of this form for tips on filing your appeal

How the Appeal Process Works

- › Appeals are reviewed by the Financial Aid Advisory Committee, and I will be notified of the Committee's decision through the Clark College student e-mail.
- › Please allow 4-6 weeks for the appeal to be reviewed.
- › The Committee's decision is final and cannot be appealed further.

By signing and submitting this request, I certify that I understand the following:

- › Providing false, misleading or partial information to obtain additional financial aid could result in termination of all aid and could lead to repayment of funds and/or prosecution under U.S. criminal code.
- › If I am registered for classes, I must pay tuition in full or make arrangements to pay with the Cashiers Office. If I am unable to pay, I am responsible for officially withdrawing from my classes.
- › I must follow my program worksheet and maintain good academic standing to maintain future eligibility.
- › The approval of this request does not allow the Financial Aid Office to exceed funding limits prescribed by Federal and State regulations and Clark College policies.
- › The program worksheet submitted with this appeal must match my declared program of study at Clark College. I authorize the Financial Aid Office to verify and update my official program of study at Clark College to reflect the worksheet submitted with this appeal.
- › If I receive any external or third party funding for my education, I must notify the agency any time my program of study changes to ensure eligibility requirements are still met.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal Tips

Need help filing your appeal? Below are tips and suggestions!

What should I include in my statement?

If you did not pass your classes successfully, include the following in your statement:

- › What happened? Explain why you did not successfully pass all of your classes. Specify the extenuating circumstances that were beyond your control and lead to the suspension of your financial aid.
- › How did you resolve your situation? It is vital to address the steps you've taken to resolve your situation so it will no longer interfere with successful completion of your classes.
- › What are you doing to stay successful in future terms? Clearly present the things you are doing to be successful in your classes (i.e. tutoring, counseling, back-up child care plans, taking less classes, pursuing a degree that is a better fit, etc.).

OR

If you have exceeded the maximum number of credits for your program, include the following in your statement:

- › Explain why you have not completed your program of study within the number of credits allowed.
 - › Did you need to retake classes due to unsatisfactory grades?
 - › Did you need to take lower level classes to get to the level required for your program?
 - › Did you withdraw from classes?
 - › Did you change your program?
- › Describe your plan to finish your program in a timely manner.

What is supporting documentation?

Include any documents from an outside source that will support the circumstances you presented in your statement.

- › All documentation should:
 - › Show a clear connection to you.
 - › Be signed and have dates that align with the information you specified in your statement.
 - › Clearly support the information in your statement.
 - › Confirm your ability to return to studies. (Resolution of emotional, medical, housing, financial, transportation issues, etc.).

How do I get a Degree Worksheet?

A program worksheet is issued by your academic advisor.

- › Schedule an appointment with an advisor early. To schedule an appointment, visit Advising Services or call (360) 992-2345.
 - › Once you get a signed program worksheet, be sure to register for program required classes only.
 - › Registering for classes that are not required for your program may result in a denial of your appeal.
