You have the option to submit an appeal to address financial aid suspension due to not meeting pace of progression and/or cumulative GPA standards. Appeals must be submitted by the priority processing date listed on the Financial Aid website to be considered for financial aid for that term and include all required documentation and signatures. Incomplete appeals will not be considered.

Instructions:

Step1: Type, print, and sign a personal statement. Describe in detail your extenuating circumstances to address your suspension due to not meeting Satisfactory Academic Progress. Also describe in detail why you have attempted the maximum number of credits for your program.

Please include the following information in your statement:

- What happened? Specify the extenuating circumstances that were beyond your control.
- How did you resolve your situation? It is vital to address the steps you have taken to resolve your situation so it will no longer interfere with successful completion of your classes.
- What are you doing to stay successful in future terms? Clearly present the things you are doing to be successful in your classes (i.e. tutoring, counseling, back-up child care plans, taking less classes, pursuing a degree that is a better fit, etc.).

Step 2: Obtain and submit supporting documentation from a 3rd party. Examples include but are not limited to:

- Copies of medical bills.
- Letters from physicians, counselors, or other professional.
- Typed/signed statement from friends or family who can corroborate your circumstances first-hand.

All documentation should:

- Show a clear connection to you.
- Be signed and have dates that align with the information you specified in your statement.
- Clearly support the information in your statement.
- Confirm your ability to return to studies. (Resolution of emotional, medical, housing, financial, transportation issues, etc.).
