

Clark baseball splits DH at Green River

The Clark College baseball team split a doubleheader against Green River on Sunday, winning 13-10 and losing 4-3 at Auburn. Both games were nine innings, although only the first game was scheduled that way.

Green River scored in the bottom of the nine in the 4-3 win. It recovered from a 3-1 deficit with a two-run fifth to tie the game.

Clark (9-19, 4-8 NWAACC West Division) pounded out 12 hits in its victory. Green River got within 6-5, but Clark never gave up the lead.

Clark pulled away with a five-run seventh inning. Green River made it close with two in its half of the seventh and two in the eighth.

Stevenson High grad Tyler Nielson was credited with the victory for Clark, which hosts Centralia in a doubleheader at 1 p.m. Saturday.
