

Clark College men stay unbeaten

Bragg, Giles lead Penguins into tourney title game

Columbian staff

Austin Bragg scored 19 points and Dominique Giles came off the bench to score 16 points to lead the Clark College men's basketball team into the final of their holiday tournament with an 86-67 win over North Seattle on Wednesday.

Clark (10-0) will play Snow College of Utah at 4 p.m. Thursday in the championship at the O'Connell Center.

The Penguins dominated the boards, holding a 55-33 edge in rebounding. Giles led Clark with 11 rebounds, and Bragg added nine. Five Penguins scored in double figures as Daniel Anderson had 13, Devon Kiser 12 and Lucas Swanson 10. Clark shot 48.6 percent from the field.

North Seattle made just 3 of 12 free throws in the loss.