

■ Clark College has earned a 2011 Spotlight Award from the Portland Metro chapter of the Public Relations Society of America. The college was honored Oct. 27 in the event or observance category for the 2011 State of the College address. Barbara Kerr, executive director of communications and marketing, submitted the entry and accepted the award on behalf of the college.